

SHORT-TERM Job Opportunity

with the NATIONAL ASSESSMENT OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS

What is NAEP?

The National Assessment of Educational Progress, also known as The Nation's Report Card, is the only nationally representative and ongoing assessment of what our nation's students know and can do. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education, NAEP has been conducted since 1969 and is nationally recognized as the "gold standard" of elementary and secondary student assessments.

Tell me more about this opportunity!

NAEP is conducted between the last week in January and the first week in March every other (odd) year, employing thousands of staff. NAEP 2011 has short-term opportunities to work on this important study of U.S. education. Job assignments begin in late 2010 and early 2011 and last until March 2011.

Candidates should

- Enjoy working with children in schools,
- Be detail oriented,
- Be able to work in a team environment, and
- Have good communication skills.

Prior education or research experience is a plus. Ideal for retired teachers.

Responsibilities include

- Administering assessment sessions in schools for a group of approximately 30 students, and
- Ensuring quality control by preparing, reviewing, and coding assessment forms.

Westat offers

- Paid training,
- Paid timed mileage reimbursement for local driving from home to schools and back,
- Weekly paychecks (with direct deposit available), and
- Opportunities for advancement based on performance.

Westat, a nationally prominent research firm responsible for conducting NAEP since 1985, is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

How do I find out more about this opportunity?

To apply for a position on NAEP, go to www.westat.com/jobs and insert 3260BR in the space provided.

For more information about Westat, visit www.westat.com.

2011